SHORTHORN FUTURITY

Show and Sale

BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY
SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1965

U K Lodestar 155,
Grand champion and top selling bull, 1963
Kentucky National
Futurity, sold at $2,000
to Russell Edwards, Winchester, Indiana.

COVER PHOTO —

Best group of three winners of the Luther Rice Memorial Trophy was this trio from Shagbark Farms at the 1962 Kentucky Futurity. The Shagbark herd was purchased in its entirety by Royalty Farms, Whitesville, Ky., consignors to this sale.

Once again the Kentucky Shorthorn Association welcomes you to its annual Futurity show and sale. This sale has earned its reputation by presenting a quality offering year-in, year-out. It has become one of the breed's best sources to select a top junior stock bull or the kind of foundation females that can raise stock bulls.

The fine cooperation of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture with premiums has made it possible for us to attract excellent entries from five states. It goes without saying that when premium money like this is available every breeder strives to bring his best.

Take advantage of this opportunity. Be with us for our banquet starting at 7:00 p.m. Western Hills Motel, the evening before the sale.

Yours very truly,

Jack Ragsdale

THIS PICTURE IS TEN YEARS OLD

and we use it to illustrate the point that top quality at the Kentucky Shorthorn Futurity is an institution of long standing. Year after year breeders on the trail of good ones have come to this sale.

A number of years ago, the Kentucky Legislature passed an act setting up a special premium fund for National Shows and Sales of the major beef breeds. The aim of this far-sighted legislation was to generate recognition the nation over for Kentucky as an outstanding source of supply for the finest registered seed stock . . . much as it has always been regarded as the finest source for Thoroughbreds. Secondly, by holding these sales in Kentucky, it was only natural a large share of the best cattle would stay in the State to build stronger herds.

In the 15 years this sale has been at Bowling Green, a total of 881 Shorthorns have been sold for a total of $427,235 . . . or an overall average of $485 . . . to cattlemen from 22 states and Canada. These are prices that leave profit on both the buyers' and sellers' side of the ledger.

It is difficult to talk breeders into parting with their very best at auction. A premium list of nearly $9,000 makes it much easier . . . and remember, every animal in the show sells at auction . . . your opportunity to share in the benefits if the Kentucky Futurity program.

15 YEARS . . . 881 HEAD . . . $427,235

Jim Kramer, Alexandria, Kentucky, was the Kentucky State 4-H Champion, 1962 with the help of this bull, which he raised and sold in the 1963 Kentucky Futurity for $825. Jim's club project has developed into a herd of Shorthorns and he is now a regular consignor to this sale.

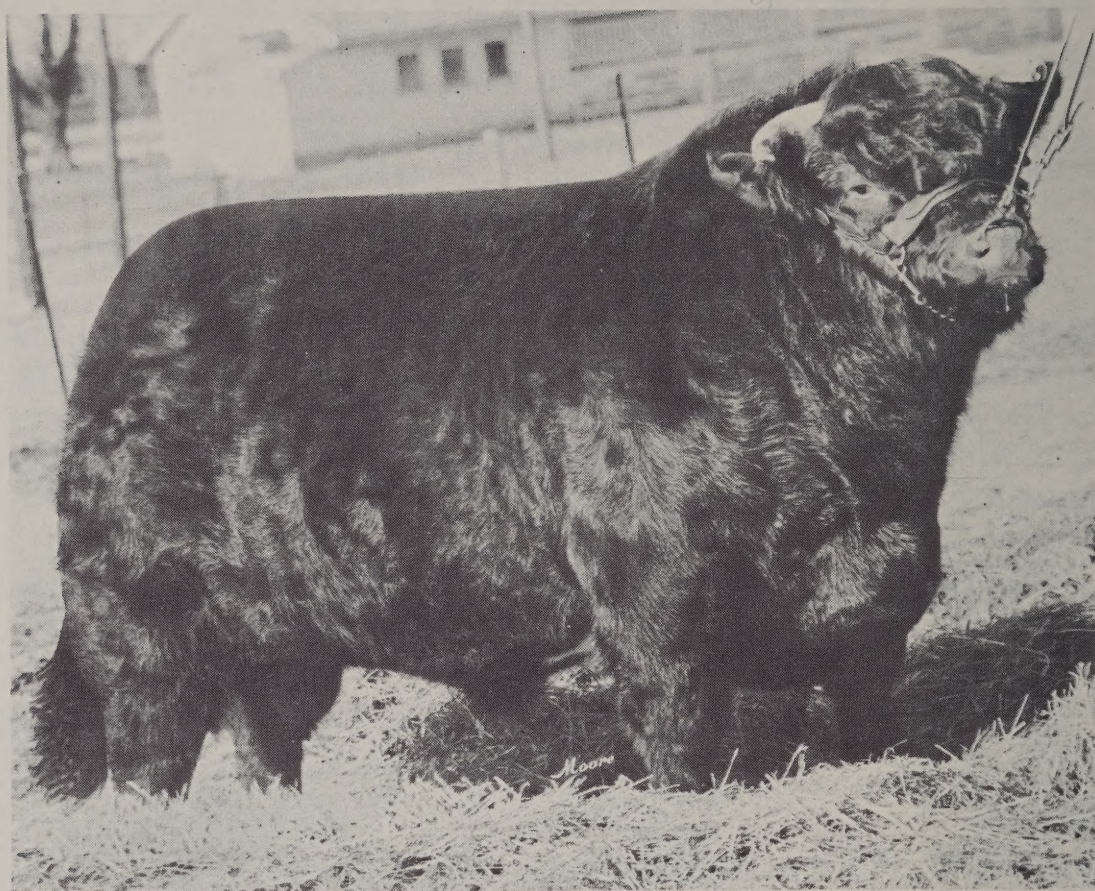

JUNIOR JUDGING CONTEST

A Junior Judging Contest will be held in connection with this show. Any 4-H or Vocational Agriculture member attending will be eligible to participate. All participants must register and receive their judging cards by 9:00 a.m. Three classes will be designated for junior placings. You will have a specified time to make your placings, handing in cards before judge's official placings.

Three prizes will be awarded. These will be credits on the purchase of any animal in the sale in the amounts of $100 (first prize); $65 (second prize); $35 (third prize). These credits are not transferrable and are void at the conclusion of this sale.

Whether or not you are a prize winner you will learn by and enjoy testing your skills upon the finest groups of Shorthorns and Polled Shorthorns to be sold this spring. The judge will give reasons on placings in these classes.

CONVENIENT FOR CATTLEMEN FROM ALL DIRECTIONS

And Now the Females . . .

The females included in this year's sale are outstanding values. There are heifers for those strengthening old herds or for the man who is starting a new Shorthorn establishment. There are heifers carrying the service of some of the truly great sires of the breed . . . open heifers suitable for showing next year.

Year after year practical cattlemen take advantage of the unique values offered in the Kentucky Futurity sale where the best bloodlines of the breed are offered at sensible prices. Why not follow their example?

MACMAR FAIR MISSIE — A roan February heifer by Shagbark Christmas Carol. She is out of a Missie Cow that traces to Ohio State University breeding and also to Calrossie Mercury. This heifer has a very good coat of hair, is thick with a good quarter. Her mother produces a calf every eleven months and gives plenty of milk. Here is a heifer that will make a great brood cow as well as being good enough to make a fine 4-H heifer. If we hadn't wanted to bring two good ones to Bowling Green, these two heifers wouldn't be for sale.

MACMAR BROADHOOKS — A white March heifer by Shagbark Christmas Carol and out of a Broadhooks cow that traces to the Ohio State University herd and has a blend of Calrossie Mercury also. This heifer is typy and low-set with a fine mossy coat of hair. Her mother is a regular producer and gives plenty of milk. This heifer was slated for our breeding herd until we decided to consign to Bowling Green. She will make a fine show heifer for some 4-H boy and she will make a valuable brood cow also.

ROYALTY ORANGE BLOSSOM — The first daughter of Kinellar Royal Robin to be offered for sale from Royalty. This heifer reflects the great job of breeding that Royal Robin is performing at Royalty. There is no lack of quality in this heifer. The only reason this heifer leaves Royalty is that we wish to show our breeding quality at the Futurity. Breeding privileges to any of the great Royalty sires. Show rights reserved.
